

Thursday, August 8, 1991

NataLee Berg to reign at Wasatch County Fair

By SONNI SCHWINN
Herald Correspondent

HEBER CITY — NataLee Berg of Midway, was selected by a panel of five judges to reign as Miss Wasatch over the County Fair and to represent the county in other events and activities during the next year.

Brooke Lee Guymon, Midway, was chosen to be 1st attendant and Juliann Tree, Center Creek, won the 2nd attendant trophy.

8-8-91
Berg performed a lyrical dance. Guymon performed a vocal solo, and Tree presented a humorous monologue during the pageant in the Wasatch High School auditorium last Saturday evening.

The other contestants were Cindi Ryan, whose talent was a vocal solo; Darci Joe Olson, who played handbells; Amy Banks, who performed a clogging routine; Tammy Buehler, a jazz dancer, and Raechelle Springer, who presented a humorous monologue.

Earlier in the day, each of the contestants was interviewed by the judges and participated in the swimwear competition. Along with the talent competition, they competed in the evening gown competition during the pageant and were required to provide on-the-spot answers to questions. But there were no awards for the winners of the separate events and the contestants' ratings were not announced.

The new Miss Wasatch was awarded a $1,000 scholarship to the college of her choice by the Franklin International Institute, Inc. Dixie College provided a full tuition scholarship for Miss Wasatch and a half-tuition scholarship for each of her attendants. Snow College provided full tuition scholarships for Miss Wasatch or her runners-up.

Local sponsors also contributed toward prize money, but the amount collected had not been totaled at press time.

Master of Ceremonies for the pageant was Craig Bolerjack, KSL sportscaster, and Mistress of Ceremonies was Jessica Davis, 1990 Miss Wasatch. Before crowning the new royalty, Davis performed the talent that helped her to win last year's crown, a lyrical dance, and read a tribute to her family and friends who supported her in last year's competition and during her reign.

Susan Kohler, Lilly Morrison, Laurie Corbett, and Blain Brown

Miss Wasatch, NataLee Berg

sang vocal solos during the program.

The pageant director was Tammy Twitchell; Marjean Garowski was general chairman of the competition, assisted by Vickie Keller, judges chairman; Teresa Wooton, production chairman; Renee Corbett, donations chairman; CheriLynne Jacob, assistant donations chairman; and Victoria Hansen, entries chairman.

Save the earth

If you have questions or comments about our environment and about what you can do to help, write to EarthWorks, P.O. Box 419149, Kansas City, Mo. 64141 for information.

Now available: 50 Simple Things Kids Can Do to Save the Earth, by the EarthWorks Group.

To order, send $6.95 plus $1.50 postage and handling fee to 50 Simple Things, Andrews & McMeel, P.O. Box 419150, Kansas City, Mo. 64141.

Wasatch Cty. Fair activity starts Saturday, Aug. 10

By SONNI SCHWINN
Herald Correspondent

HEBER CITY — Wasatch County Fair Days begins this Saturday with the annual Demolition Derby at 7 p.m. in the rodeo arena.

The annual boat parade will begin at sunset, Wednesday, followed by fireworks on Deer Creek Reservoir. The Utah National Guard will provide free boat rides, beginning at 3 p.m. and conduct war games on the reservoir during the evening.

The rodeo will begin at 6 p.m. Friday and 8 p.m. Saturday. Friday's night's rodeo events will be followed by a western music concert in the rodeo arena, beginning at 8 p.m.

Thursday evening there will be a square dance at the Senior Citizens Center, beginning at 7:30 p.m. and a free western dance in the IGA parking lot on Main Street, beginning at 9 p.m. On Friday night, in the county complex, rock music for dancing will begin at 9:30, and on Saturday night, a dance for western music fans will begin at 9:30.

There will be horse races at the rodeo arena, beginning at 1 p.m. Saturday, and the annual parade on main street will begin at 6 p.m. that evening.

Exhibits will be open to the public at the Middle School, Thursday afternoon and all day Friday and Saturday. Merchants will hold their sidewalk sales on Main Street Friday and Saturday, and the Country Market, on Tabernacle Square, also will be open both days. There also will be continuous entertainment on Tabernacle Square on both days, and a talent show in the square, beginning at 7 p.m.

Fair Board Dates Events

Last weeks meeting of Wasatch County Fair Board proved productive with corrections in dates for events. Approved for this years County Fair Days were date and time of the Demolition Derby which will be held Saturday, August 3, at 7 p.m. The 4-H Show will be Tuesday, Aug. 6, at 4 p.m., And the talent Show will be held at the Tabernacle Square Thursday, Aug. 8, at 7 p.m. Other events will be announced as dates, times, and places are approved.

4-11-91

Expressions of Thanks

14 Aug 1991

As Miss Wasatch, I would like to thank all those responsible for the Miss Wasatch Pageant. All the long, hard hours of work really paid off. The pageant was a huge success and a very rewarding experience.

I would especially like to thank my sponsors listed below. Through their generosity and support, I am able to compete in the pageant and accomplish the tasks who turned out to be wonderful friends. Thank

Amanda McNeill
Frank their
of $1
my t
Way
opp
bes
as

Department, Jim Kelson; Duke's IGA; The Homestead, Britt Mathwick; Angie Berg, Debbie Sharp, Chrysalis Hair Designs, and Lofthouse.

There's and Laice,
and Valley
Broderick's
Amigo Bay,
Inber, Blazing
Auto, Ponderosa
Palace Drug,
cabinetry, and to all who turned out to be wonderful friends. Thank

I would like to thank those who helped us with the Democratic booth at the Town Square Market during Fair Days. Thanks to those who brought baked goods. I want to especially thank Debbie McDonald, who made the darling quilts, and 200 bags of carnal corn. What a terrific person. Thanks to all.

Gaye McPhie
County Democratic Chairman

We want to express our appreciation to the people of Heber for their support they showed us and their family for car-pooling to give people a little hope to see all of you there. It can only get bigger and better! Thanks

Susan Kohler
"Sage"

EACH OFFICE IS INDEPENDENT

Expressions of Thanks

As Miss Wasatch, I would like to thank all those responsible for the Miss Wasatch Pageant. All the long, hard hours of work really paid off. The pageant was a huge success and a very rewarding experience.

I would especially like to thank my sponsors listed below. Through their generosity and support, I was able to compete in the pageant and accomplish the Miss Wasatch title.

I also need to thank The Franklin International Institute for their more than generous donation of $1,000 towards a scholarship in my behalf. Last of all I thank you Wasatch County for giving me this opportunity. I will do my very best to represent this county as well as it should be.

Sponsors: Franklin International Institute, Jim Ritchie; Sandra Berg; Alan M. Giles, Appraisal and Consulting; Deer Creek Island Resort; Steven R. Brown, DDS, MSD, PC; Mr. and Mrs. Alan Bluth, Dr. and Mrs. Glade L. Tregaskis, Donna Tregaskis, Davis Brothers Realty, UVRMC Physical Therapy

Department, Jim Kelson; Duke's IGA; The Homestead, Britt Mathewick; Angie Berg, Debbie Sharp, Chrysalis Hair Designs, and Jodi Lofthouse.

Thanks again,
NataLee Berg

I would like to thank all the wonderful people who have supported me in the Mountain Valley Stampede Queen Contest. My good friends at Am. Cowboy! Wayne and Joy Soper; Mountainland One Stop, Pete and Peg; Tolton's Arabians and Critters, Inc., Joe and Sheila; Laura's Pearls and Lace, "Our talented Laura"; P&R Cleaning, thanks Peg; Round Valley Market in Wallsburg; Broderick's beautiful jewelry; Flamingo Bay, Audra; Heber Lumber, Blazing Saddles, Wasatch Auto, Ponderosa Pawn, Dairy Keen, Palace Drug, and Mountain Cabinetry, and to all the contestants who turned out to be such wonderful friends. Thank you all.

Amanda McNeill

We want to take this opportunity to extend our deep appreciation to the wonderful people of Heber Valley for the support they showed at this years IGA parking lot dance.

We also want to thank Ralph and Kim Duke and their family for caring enough to give people a little pleasure and some "fun free family" entertainment. Plans are already underway for next year's dance. Hope to see all of you there. It can only get bigger and better! Thanks again.

Susan Kohler
"Sage"

I would like to thank those who helped us with the Democratic booth at the Town Square Market during Fair Days. Thanks to those who brought baked goods.

I want to especially thank Debbie McDonald, who made the darling quilts, and 200 bags of carmel corn. What a terrific person. Thanks to all.

Gaye McPhie
County Democratic Chairman

Thursday, August 8, 1991

Fair Board Dates Events

Last weeks meeting of Wasatch County Fair Board proved productive with corrections in dates for events. Approved for this years County Fair Days were date and time of the Demolition Derby which will be held Saturday, August 3, at 7 p.m. The 4-H Show will be Tuesday, Aug. 6, at 4 p.m., And the talent Show will be held at the Tabernacle Square Thursday, Aug. 8, at 7 p.m. Other events will be announced as dates, times, and places are approved.

4-11-91

NataLee Berg to reign at Wasatch County Fair

By SONNI SCHWINN
Herald Correspondent

HEBER CITY — NataLee Berg of Midway, was selected by a panel of five judges to reign as Miss Wasatch over the County Fair and to represent the county in other events and activities during the next year.

Brooke Lee Guymon, Midway, was chosen to be 1st attendant and Juliann Tree, Center Creek, won the 2nd attendant trophy.

Berg performed a lyrical dance. Guymon performed a vocal solo, and Tree presented a humorous monologue during the pageant in the Wasatch High School auditorium last Saturday evening.

The other contestants were Cindi Ryan, whose talent was a vocal solo; Darci Joe Olson, who played handbells; Amy Banks, who performed a clogging routine; Tammy Buehler, a jazz dancer, and Raechelle Springer, who presented a humorous monologue.

Earlier in the day, each of the contestants was interviewed by the judges and participated in the swimwear competition. Along with the talent competition, they competed in the evening gown competition during the pageant and were required to provide on-the-spot answers to questions. But there were no awards for the winners of the separate events and the contestants' ratings were not announced.

The new Miss Wasatch was awarded a $1,000 scholarship to the college of her choice by the Franklin International Institute, Inc. Dixie College provided a full tuition scholarship for Miss Wasatch and a half-tuition scholarship for each of her attendants. Snow College provided full tuition scholarships for Miss Wasatch or her runners-up.

Local sponsors also contributed toward prize money, but the amount collected had not been totaled at press time.

Master of Ceremonies for the pageant was Craig Bolerjack, KSL sportscaster, and Mistress of Ceremonies was Jessica Davis, 1990 Miss Wasatch. Before crowning the new royalty, Davis performed the talent that helped her to win last year's crown, a lyrical dance, and read a tribute to her family and friends who supported her in last year's competition and during her reign.

Susan Kohler, Lilly Morrison, Laurie Corbett, and Blain Brown

Miss Wasatch, NataLee Berg

sang vocal solos during the program.

The pageant director was Tammy Twitchell; Marjean Garowski was general chairman of the competition, assisted by Vickie Keller, judges chairman; Teresa Wooton, production chairman; Renee Corbett, donations chairman; CheriLynne Jacob, assistant donations chairman; and Victoria Hansen, entries chairman.

Save the earth

If you have questions or comments about our environment and about what you can do to help, write to EarthWorks, P.O. Box 419149, Kansas City, Mo. 64141 for information.

Now available: 50 Simple Things Kids Can Do to Save the Earth, by the EarthWorks Group.

To order, send $6.95 plus $1.50 postage and handling fee to 50 Simple Things, Andrews & McMeel, P.O. Box 419150, Kansas City, Mo. 64141.

Wasatch Cty. Fair activity starts Saturday, Aug. 10

By SONNI SCHWINN
Herald Correspondent

HEBER CITY — Wasatch County Fair Days begins this Saturday with the annual Demolition Derby at 7 p.m. in the rodeo arena.

The annual boat parade will begin at sunset, Wednesday, followed by fireworks on Deer Creek Reservoir. The Utah National Guard will provide free boat rides, beginning at 3 p.m. and conduct war games on the reservoir during the evening.

The rodeo will begin at 6 p.m. Friday and 8 p.m. Saturday. Friday's night's rodeo events will be followed by a western music concert in the rodeo arena, beginning at 8 p.m.

Thursday evening there will be a square dance at the Senior Citizens Center, beginning at 7:30 p.m. and a free western dance in the IGA parking lot on Main Street, beginning at 9 p.m. On Friday night, in the county complex, rock music for dancing will begin at 9:30, and on Saturday night, a dance for western music fans will begin at 9:30.

There will be horse races at the rodeo arena, beginning at 1 p.m. Saturday, and the annual parade on main street will begin at 6 p.m. that evening.

Exhibits will be open to the public at the Middle School, Thursday afternoon and all day Friday and Saturday. Merchants will hold their sidewalk sales on Main Street Friday and Saturday, and the Country Market, on Tabernacle Square, also will be open both days. There also will be continuous entertainment on Tabernacle Square on both days, and a talent show in the square, beginning at 7 p.m.